

Hello and Happy Holidays!

I couldn't believe it when I looked out my window and saw the snow today. It sure made me realize how fast time flies by and how colder times are coming. We are almost half way through the school year already. I can't wait for the New Year and all the exciting things that will be happening with PTSA.

First, we want to thank Lisa and Kevin McAlhane for booking the assembly that was held on November 20th. Jerry Jacoby doing "Jr. High – The Best Ten Years of My Life." This is a "Character and Integrity" type of program. You can check out the website at www.jerryjacoby.com.

The 8th Grade Celebration Committee has been hard at work planning their year-end party. Gameworks has been booked for lunch and games. It's sure to be a fun time for the 8th graders.

Spirit Wear has been ordered and the Directory will be submitted soon for printing. Watch for the Directory, it will be delivered to your child in the next couple of weeks.

We are taking a break in December and will not have a PTSA meeting. The next meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, January 12th. All PTSA members are invited. Please come anytime to let us know what you would like to see happening in the school.

We wish you all a Happy, Healthy and Safe Holiday Season!
